JOSLYN EDWARD ELLIOT

Obituary

Joslyn Edward Elliott, son of the late Donald Elliott and Norma Headley was born on July 12th, 1959 in Georgetown, Guyana. Joslyn attended school in elementary school at Ms. Stewart Private Kindergarten and Saint George. He attended secondary school at Georgetown secondary. He also attended Hararuni Full Gospel Bible School in 1977 and 1979 where he graduated with honors.

He served as an ordained pastor in the Mahaica area after graduated from Bible School. He started multiple churches in Guyana and the United States of America. He was a part of ETP (Evangelism Training Program) and an integral part of the worship team. He had a true love for music, especially jazz, and could play almost any instrument he put his hands on. His favorite thing to do was singing. He later made a career change into IT, which he did for most of his career.

Joslyn was a service-oriented person and assisted many youths in their endeavors especially in drama, creative arts, public speaking, dancing, and poetry.

He was survived by his wife Maura Elliott, his children Jon, Michael, and Sonja. He was also survived his mother Norma Headley, his siblings Neil Elliott, Orrett Elliott, Brian Jinwright Myrna Chapman Abrams, Jennifer Chapman, Marlon Chapman, and Gary Headley. He was preceded in death by his father Donald Elliott and his siblings Garry Elliott and Donna Elliott.

FROM

John 14:1-3

TO BE READ BY

VALERIE TARANTINO

“ Do not let your hearts be troubled. You believe in God; believe also in me. My Father’s house has many rooms; if that were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am. ”
